

Elizabeth McNamee

Vice Chair, Community Town Halls Committee, Arizona Town Hall

Elizabeth McNamee is a consultant and Life Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives with extensive business experience, particularly in governance, policy and systems change initiatives. Elizabeth is especially skilled in consensus building among diverse groups as well as in the development of solutions to complex health care issues.

Elizabeth previously held senior executive positions with healthcare companies, and with a healthcare conversion foundation. She also served as a consultant for a business and industries association and an Arizona-based business and healthcare coalition.

Elizabeth earned her Bachelor's degree from Trinity University and her Master's degree from the University Of Texas, School Of Public Health.

Over her career, Elizabeth has held a number of leadership positions with a wide range of organizations including Mountain Park Health Center, Valle del Sol, and the Community College of the Air Force, National Health Service Corp, the Arizona Women's Forum and the Economic Club of Phoenix, as well as Arizona Town Hall.

Elizabeth continues to volunteer with Arizona Town Hall as Chair of the Community Town Hall Committee and with Mountain Park Health Center as Chair of the Board Development Committee.
